

Hey Students!

Presenting at the 2018 NWAC in Boise, ID?

The AOA wants to award YOU $300!

The Association of Oregon Archaeologists (AOA) is offering a $300 Student Travel Award to a student presenting their research at the 2018 Northwest Anthropological Conference (NWAC).

Qualifications:

- Must be a currently enrolled undergraduate/graduate student
- Research must directly contribute to and enhance the understanding of Oregon archaeology
- Submit an application (see below) to the AOA by March 23rd, 2018
- Must present the research at the 2018 NWAC as a paper or poster

The Award:

- $300 to help with travel expenses for the NWAC
- 1 ticket to the NWAC's Friday evening banquet
- 1 year's student membership to the AOA (awarded to all applicants!)
- Abstract published in the AOA's newsletter, Current Archaeological Happenings in Oregon (CAHO)

Application Requirements:

- Title of the presentation
- A copy of the abstract for the paper or poster
- An outline of the presentation (required for both a paper and poster presentation)
 - Generally outline the presentation's research question, theory/methods used, results, and how this research contributes to and enhances the understanding of Oregon archaeology (100-300 words).
- Send your application to the AOA Board at assocoregonarchaeologists@gmail.com

Deadline:

Applications are due by March 23rd, 2018

Open to all students whose research directly contributes to and enhances the understanding of Oregon archaeology.

For questions and submissions, contact the AOA at assocoregonarchaeologists@gmail.com.

NWAC details can be found at: <https://www.nwaconference.com/>

AOA details can be found at: www.associationoforegonarchaeologists.org